Argentina,

A DESTINATION FOR INCENTIVE TRIPS

ARGENTINA is located in the south of America. It offers us a unique variety of climates and landscapes. It is a receptive, versatile and different country, full of endless possibilities. It is the FIVE-CONTINENT country.

Its capital city, Buenos Aires, is undoubtedly the big metropolis in the south as well as an acknowledged cultural polo in America.

The excellent hotel offer (both in quantity and quality) is an important fact to bear in mind when offering a destination that fulfills all the necessary guarantees to develop an incentive.

Its significant gastronomy is based on high-quality red meat, which is product of our wide green prairies in La Pampa, and on its wines, made especially for the most demanding palates.

Argentina is very well known for its popular hospitality and its inhabitants' friendliness that make the tourist feel comfortable as if it were his own home.

Only few countries in the world offer so many varied opportunities to conform the ideal destination for special journeys.

Buenos Aires

Buenos Aires, the capital city of Argentina, was founded in 1580 by the Spaniard Don Juan de Garay who named it Nuestra Señora de los Buenos Aires. Since its foundation, it has been an open city, welcoming people from different parts of the world. It has become a dynamic, elegant and major cultural metropolis.

History is reflected in its buildings which show the different times the city underwent. Buenos Aires is one of the most fascinating and richest in contrast cities in the world. It is a city full of Tango seduction.
